

To Whom it may concern:

Please leave XM-Radio alone, XM is a paid service, I travel many miles and I need the weather and traffic information.

Perhaps the FCC should spend its time getting rid of the violence on television, instead of wasting its time on XM radio's programming.